

Important: bilingual Mass!!

Goal	Result	Reflection
Make sure the singers have the Spanish pronunciation for the songs down	I think everyone did a pretty decent job at it	The group dwindled down to three singers (+ the cellist, but that's irrelevant to pronunciation) on Sunday, so that made it easier to make sure everyone had the words right. Also, I ended up taking the verses on two of the songs just because they were wordier and that made it simpler.
Get more helpers for set up/clean up	Lily helped J. Paul and I 😊	We were able to rehearse more before adoration because it took less time to set up, and we were able to get out quicker after Mass on Sunday as well.
Give away some solos	Lily soloed a song at adoration	The bilingual Mass made it difficult to get other people soloing on Sunday, but it worked out with Lily for adoration, and I hope I can continue giving solos away so I'm not leading everything because that's exhausting for my voice.
Be more authoritative (particularly during rehearsal)	Hmmmm I don't know	It's really hard because J. Paul so naturally takes more of the leading role because of his personality. He frequently hands it off to me like "it's all up to you, Rosa" but I feel like he shouldn't have to do that in the first place.
